FOREMAN SAYS HE BELIEVES IT - SAVED HIS LIFE

Mahoney Never Expected to Get
Out of Bed Again - Now
Back at Work

Many wonderful endorsements have been given Thakle, but the statement made on October 28th by James Mahoney, of 22 West 18th street, Los Angeles, Cal., is as remarkable as to be almost incredible.

Mr. Mahoney, however, is a man of unquestionable integrity and has been foreman at the Richards-Neumann Construction Co. ten years. His neighbors have corroborated his remarkable statement in every detail and will do so again if called upon.

"It was being talked among my friends," said Mr. Mahoney, "that I was going to die, and I don't believe anyone ever had a much closer call. Closely following an injury to my back, caused by lifting some steel last July a year ago my whole system seemed to give way. My stomach commenced hurting me terribly and I suffered from gas and indigestion. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and I could not eat a thing without intense pain afterwards. My appetite left me entirely and I got so weak I could not even lift ten pounds. Then I became constipated. Both my kidneys got out of order and I was in a very bad way. I was in this way for the time and so weak I could not lift my feet to go up the steps. I could not straighten up for the pain in my stomach. Before these troubles started I weighed one hundred and forty-five but dropped down until I weighed only sixty-five pounds, and I was very a living skeleton. I was. I could hear my friends who came in to see me, 'Poor Jim, he can't last much longer,' and I had the worst myself of ever getting up. In spite of all that could be done I kept getting worse. That lump in my stomach seemed to get larger and the pain more intense. Finally I was told nothing more could be done except to operate, and I was very weak to stand that.

"One day a friend who had been coming to see me often told me how Thakle had helped his daughter, and I went to try it. At first I refused, as my wife was opposed to any more surgery, prescribed medicines that one day this friend offered to get me a bottle of Thakle with the understanding that no one else should know about it. Well, I started taking it and by the time he brought me the third bottle I was feeling better. I stopped everything else, kept taking Thakle and after five more bottles I soon noticed the pain in my stomach easing up and I began to eat again. I had been losing weight and strength. I lost taking twenty bottles and as a result I am in better shape than I was for years before. I was taken sick. I now weigh one hundred and thirty pounds, and can do the heavy lifting just the same as I ever could. I am not bothered any more with my kidney or constipation, and I sleep like a baby. My appetite is simply first rate. I now think just as I do that Thakle is the greatest medicine in the world. I will praise it as long as I live, and I never expect to be without it."

Thakle is sold in Edmonton by the Owl Drug Co., Ltd., under the personal direction of a special Thakle representative. Price $1.10 per bottle. Sent postpaid for $1.35. (Adv.)

PREMIER HUGHES MAKES ATTACK ON LABOR PARTY

Says He Was Expelled for Submitting Compulsory Service to Plebiscite

Edmonton, Nov. 1.—Premier Hughes opened the general election campaign with a speech at Bendigo. He reminded his hearers that he was expelled from the Labor party because in response to the Imperial Government's appeal in 1916 for more recruits he submitted the question of compulsory service to the people. The people did not choose whether they wanted to be governed by men who do not defend and defend them and others in 1916 because they refused to be their tools and who had throughout the darkest days of the war hampered every effort to achieve victory, or by those who had kept their pledges and placed the honor of the country high above all party considerations.

Premier Hughes said that the Labor party not only opposed conscription, but hampered voluntary enlistment, and even when the few were within striking distance of Paris and imminent the chocolate pots they lapped about peace by negotiation.

CHEAP FOOD, LOW RETAILS, WORK PLENTY

Australian Commissioner Gives a
Rosy Picture of Reconstruction
Conditions There

New York Tribune: In comparison with the rest of the world, Australia is apparently enjoying great prosperity according to figures cited and statements made by Mark Sheldon, High Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Australia in the United States, who arrived here last week.

Mr. Sheldon said that a state of optimism prevails in his home country, where labor despite experiments in various new legislation puts the country's welfare before its own and where industrial unrest as a result of the arbitration system is almost negligible. He said that rents are cheap, food prices low, and that there is no unemployment problem.

The fact that a considerable number of American financiers and business men are at present in Australia laying the foundation for an extensive commercial and financial intercourse between the two nations, was touched upon by Commissioner Sheldon.

In this connection he said: "We trust that we will see more of them in the Commonwealth. Australia will prosper under the greatest of all resources and conditions. It is at present enjoying the greatest prosperity in her history—a prosperity that is willing to share with the world. Her success is built on several factors recognized as invaluable by American capitalists of industry. These are natural resources that are vast and easily accessible, a nearly uniformly increasing speaking population, and room for many more millions of income."

Commissioner Sheldon in discussing the labor situation in Australia said: "In view of the general industrial unrest throughout the world, it will be interesting to examine the status of the labor movement in Australia. The arbitration system has been tested probably more thoroughly in Australia than anywhere else. The system itself is largely the work of labor government in Australia. It has been particularly effective in settling small disputes, which otherwise would have culminated in strikes. While the Australian system has not always proved a preventive of strikes, it has been extremely satisfactory in settling them when both parties have agreed to submit their disputes to the Arbitration Court. The present men's strike was only a question of arbitration. The government demanded that the course should decide the matter in dispute and the government won."

"The big union movement—the one which has collapsed completely. The greatest industrial union in Australia—the Australian Workers Union—has turned it down. This is due to the fact that the rank and file of Australian workmen look upon their union as an instrument to better conditions and not as a means for political action. The purpose of the one of the big union, whose lines of progress are not so clear as the Russian Soviet."

"It went on, 'that the I.W.W. movement been allowed to gain ground. A year and a half ago it was denied making it illegal for any such organization to exist. Allowed to exist, the I.W.W. was subject to improvement, and if not Australian men may be deported. I consider the I.W.W. as an utterly defeated organization.'"

Mr. Sheldon went on to say that four and five room houses in Australia for four or five dollars a week, and that the cost of living had only gone up about 25 per cent.

"I give you an idea," he continued, "of the extent of our natural resources. I need merely tell you that we are immediately ready for 10,000,000 more of population. That is twice the population we have today. Our agricultural output for the 1917 fiscal year, despite our limited population, was valued at $1,400,000,000. (In our price of staples of life is very much lower than elsewhere in the world.)"

"It should be remembered," he said in conclusion, "that the bulk of this money is represented by railroads, and that the railroads in Australia are state owned. The expenditure under this heading has been somewhere between 40 and 70 per cent of the actual money borrowed from Great Britain—squarely from loans for war expenditure—the market value of the railways would now represent a value of more than the pre-war debt. If we realized our own resources, the public debt of Australia, apart from war loans, could be wiped out."

Mr. Sheldon continued that Australia is now taking 35 per cent of the entire imports from the United States, but is sending 25 per cent of her exports to this country. "In the field of trade," he said, "at present is considerably aided by rates of exchange which on goods sold to Australia favor the American exporter."

Mr. Sheldon spoke of the friendship between English-speaking nations that the war had brought about and the admiration which Australia and American soldiers have for each other.

LOCAL ELECTIONS ARE BEING HELD IN GREAT BRITAIN

First Election of Town Councils
Since 1912 Enlarged by Larger Issues

London, Nov. 1.—Elections will be held today for the town councils in the provinces and for borough councils in London. These councils control municipal affairs, such as road building, sanitation and light. The elections for these offices are usually held triennially. But have not been held since 1912, owing to the war. The public generally take keen interest in these elections, but on this occasion two questions of outstanding interest are expected to induce polling activity. The first is the continuous rise in local rates during and since the war, amounting in some power districts of London to as much as 12 shillings in a pound on the rental value of buildings. The second is the absence of housing accommodation.

Three parties are in the field—Moderate, Progressive and Laborist. The Labor party has 1,500 candidates. Great Britain is divided into 1,000 constituencies. Their program requires measures to end profiteering by means of a municipal trading in foodstuffs and other necessities, an effective house-building program, and a general policy for borough councils. In London, the council is expected to advocate taxation of local aristocrats.

Another feature of the campaign is the great part taken by women. Who of £250,000 is claimed by the pro-

Daughters of Canada

The mother, the nurse, the women with the needle, the ambulance driver, the canteen worker, the "farmerette" and the daughters of industry in factory, office and store—all-inspired the manhood and ennobled the womanhood of Canada by their labours of love and sacrifice in the days of the nation's anguish—now happily past.

And their response, to give and to lend of their money time and time again—was beyond all praise.

And—Canada—being mindful of their past example—and conscious of their all-pervading influence again asks her Countrywomen to buy Victory Bonds. Yes, she asks them to buy them, even at the sacrifice of some cherished longed-for purchase.

It is self denied to do without something that will lend background to ones charm, but the time is not long and the debts of honour must be paid.

There is another thought, too, that wives and mothers will appreciate. The success of the Victory Loan makes for Prosperity. Steady employment is dependent upon prosperity. Without prosperity uncertainty will follow.

Hence Canada sounds a clarion call to her daughters for their aid in making an abundant success of the Victory Loan 1919.

STEEL CORP. WILL PURCHASE BRITISH NOTES

New York, Nov. 1.—Robert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, announced that the corporation has agreed to purchase $10,000,000 worth of notes of the $20,000,000 loan being raised for Great Britain by J. P. Morgan & Co.

BRITISH GOVT. SUBSIDIES FOR NEWS SERVICE

London, Nov. 1.—(C.A.P.)—In the House of Commons on Friday the under secretary of state for the colonies informed Mr. Percy Hurd that payment to Reuters in respect to the Imperial news service, hitherto paid at the rate of £400 pounds per annum, part of which was met by the government and part by other British administrations interested.

Continuing of the Imperial service on several lines was under consideration by the Canadian government. The under secretary added that payment to Reuters to meet the actual expenses in sending amplified dispatches to other parts of the Empire had been approved until December 1st. The total loss to the government funds involved in the Imperial news service was, after October 31st, at the rate of £400 pounds per annum, part of which was met by the government and part by other British administrations interested.

NOW THOUGHT ST. JOHN SOLDIER WAS MURDERED

Court-Martial Declared Man Had Deserted, But Finding of Skull and Rifle Lead to Another View

St. John, N.H., Nov. 1.—A startling development which may lead to further investigation of the case of St. John, who disappeared while on sentry duty at West St. John in May 1918, was brought to light yesterday.

A court-martial declared the man a deserter, but discovery of a man's skull and a military rifle in the mud near the dock this week is accepted as evidence of the reason of his disappearance.

Wide Re-Married
In telephone communication with Montreal, N.H., where the widow of the soldier now resides, it is learned that she had been married a few weeks ago to John A. Gray, of that place.

A reason for her conviction that she was free to marry, in spite of the verdict of the court-martial, she said that she had received a letter from Michael Rial, a member of her husband's corps, written in the hospital in St. John while he was dying of influenza last fall, in which he said that he had seen his wife fall over the wharf into the harbor.

The fact that this story was communicated only when the writer was at the point of death, when he was informed the military authorities of what he had seen, had raised suspicions that there is something about the case which demands the fullest investigation under the circumstances.

JAIL TERM DEMANDED FOR PROFITEERS
British Papers Disagree with Minister That Present Law is Working Reform
London, Nov. 1.—A declaration by Sir Auckland Geddes that the profiteering law is working well is received sceptically. It is asserted that the present law is merely teaching traders caution and not honesty.

Several newspapers are confident that nothing but imprisonment will eradicate the evil. Meanwhile shopkeepers are indignantly protesting against government encouragement of street trading which prevents them from selling for local sales.

The food controller retorts that there is absolutely no prospect of a fall in prices for a long time.
